

Bonafide Global Fish Fund is officially recognised as the Investors Choice Winner in the Global Equity Fund under $500m category at the EMEA Investors Choice Awards 2019.

London, March 29th 2019 - Allocator, the data platform for the investment management industry, has announced the Winners for the Investors Choice Awards 2019. This year, 70 investor companies participated as judges, submitting over 1000 scores across the 250 top performing funds.

The Investors Choice Winners were selected by the judging panel as the top fund in their respective categories based on a combination of quantitative and qualitative criteria. These include risk-adjusted returns, maximum drawdown, investment process, depth of research team and ability to generate alpha.

David Tawil, co-founder of Allocator commented, "Bonafide Global Fish Fund should be extremely proud of this achievement. To be selected by our esteemed judges as the best fund in the Global Equity Fund under $500m is a fantastic feat.

Christoph Baldegger of Bonafide Global Fish Fund also commented, "We are very proud to be recognized as an Investors Choice Winner at this year's awards. It is recognition for all the hard work that everyone at Bonafide puts in every day and reaffirms our commitment to delivering market beating returns for our clients."

About Allocator:

Allocator is a fast-growing FinTech startup in the investment management industry. Led by a team of experts, Allocator offers an online platform for institutional investors and family offices to manage the flow of fund data so they can better understand their current and prospective investments. Allocator is used by some of the world's largest investor companies and has experienced strong growth with over 4000 funds now piping their data through the platform (data on over $6trn of assets).

For more information about Allocator, please visit www allocator.com

For more information about the awards, please visit www investorschoiceawards.com